About MAC

The Muslim Association of Canada (MAC) is a religious, educational, social, charitable and non-profit organization. MAC provides services and programs designed to assist in the holistic educational and spiritual development of the Muslim individual and family. A primary tenet of MAC is community involvement and service not only within the Muslim community but also within the broader London community. Locally, the MAC London Chapter has been active in operating the MAC Youth Centre in the heart of London, providing services to individuals of varying demographics including youth and is seen as a staple within the community. MAC London's efforts are continued now with the construction of the new Southdale Community Center that service our community into the future.

A national, grassroots organization, MAC currently operates in twelve Canadian cities including Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto, Mississauga, Hamilton, Kitchener, London, Windsor, Winnipeg, Calgary, Edmonton and Vancouver.

MAC's vision and mission is to establish an Islamic presence in Canada that is balanced, constructive and integrated, though distinct, within the social fabric and culture of Canada. MAC upholds a balanced view of Islam that is deeply rooted in traditional sources yet dynamic in its dealing with the current Canadian context. We strive to serve our fellow Canadians through volunteering. We are driven by our belief that community service and spirituality are inseparable. We particularly serve Muslim youth in London by providing various services and activities.

About EMAAN

Education is very important in the Islamic faith. The Muslim Association of Canada is organizing EMAAN, an apex event that honors and recognizes students and community workers for their achievements over the past year. EMAAN is a national program with an objective to encourage and inspire youth to seek knowledge by furthering their education, to contribute positively to society and to celebrate Muslim student achievements. EMAAN is completely implemented, organized, and executed by the efforts of volunteers, who play a vital role in its success.

EMAAN provides scholarships to the students who show a record of excellent achievement. The categories of awards recognizes efforts in:

- Academics
- Community service and leadership
- Sports
- Arts and literature
- Quranic memorization and Tajweed

Awards will be distributed based on an application process which is open to all High School and Post-Secondary students as well as young professionals and community workers.

Overall, EMAAN is a program that strengthens our Canadian heritage and celebrates diversity in our multicultural Muslim community.

Previous EMAAN Events

Estimated Budget Shortfall:

The revenue from ticket sales will be used to cover the rental cost of the venue as well as the lunch expenses. In order to secure the keynote speaker as well as other expenses including scholarships, advertising, trophies, entertainment and certificates, we are in need of additional funds of $20,000. Therefore, we request that you consider donating to the EMAAN organization. With your support, our organization will be able to provide an unforgettable experience for our well deserving award recipients. Together we can use this event to inspire and motivate our youth to continue to achieve excellence!

Benefits to the Community:

Your sponsorship will enable us to grant Muslim members of the London community the opportunity to exemplify merit, leadership and demonstrate excellence in their achievements not only in their academic lives but in every aspect of it. Nationally, this function has been honored to welcome a high-caliber audience of hundreds of people, including respected government dignitaries, members of academia, public and private school board members, members of various religious and cultural organizations, families and students.

Levels of Sponsorship:

In gratitude to your contribution, your organization can be acknowledged as the sponsor of the event by dedicating your name or the name of your business to an award. In addition, throughout the duration of the event, your organization will be given some space for display of material to promote your business. The size of the space will depend upon the level of your contribution. Please see the chart below for the various benefits of sponsoring:
